Say It Again

In Hebrew, one of the languages of the Bible, repetition is used to convey that something is “more.” For instance, to express that someone is truly beautiful, one would say they are “pretty pretty.” Likewise, if one is feeling extremely ill, they would be described as “sick sick.” Repeating the word adds emphasis and intensity.

This is precisely what the Apostle John, while writing the book of Revelation, is getting at when he records the opening words of the eternal song being sung in heaven at this very moment: “‘Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty,’ who was, and is, and is to come.” This isn’t a hymn about a somewhat holy God. They’re not singing lyrics about a moderately holy God. Absolutely not. This God is fundamentally distinct. Utterly flawless. Profoundly majestic. Worthy beyond comprehension. One “holy” just doesn’t suffice. Even two don’t come close. In the only instance of a threefold superlative in Scripture, we witness God being described as “holy, holy, holy.” Say it again!

The boundless praise of heaven resonates on Earth through Jesus Christ, and it’s His gift of eternal life that we will be sharing this week. We are joining the heavenly song already in progress as we journey to Oklahoma City to uplift and be uplifted by the followers of Christ there, reminding them that they are not alone. We will serve alongside them, learn from them, share laughter with them, and worship with them. In doing so, we will encounter some truly remarkable individuals along the way. Many of these individuals will be on the same journey that we are—walking towards Christ. Some may not even realize it yet.

In response to God’s call to demonstrate the love of Christ to all, including one another, Chapel Choir is going to Oklahoma City to participate in the work God is already doing there through ministry, music, and service.

We have important work ahead of us and much good news to proclaim. We are profoundly grateful to have a front-row seat to God’s work in and through you.

Together,
John & Bryan

Logistics & Guidelines

---

Major Rules

Immediately Sent Home at Parents' Expense

- Use or possession of any illegal substance, alcohol, guns, knives, fireworks, tobacco, e-cigarettes, or related paraphernalia.
  - Student is found inside a room of the opposite sex.
  - Blatantly repeated acts of disrespect for adult supervision or violation of agreed upon specific event rules.

Ten Commandments of Mission Tour

1. Be present. Participate wholeheartedly.
  2. Be bold. Share, sing, and serve with guts.
  3. Be obedient. Follow the guidance of those who lead.
  4. Be safe. Always have a partner or group.
  5. Be encouraging. Say something positive.
  6. Be eager. Stay flexible even when surprised.
  7. Be humble. Put the team first.
  8. Be rested. Sleep when it's time for bed.
  9. Be full. Eat something at every meal.
  10. Be deep. Pay attention to Christ's work in and around you.

Water

Bottled water will always be available on the buses and at our lodging. You may also wish to bring a personal water bottle. Stay hydrated.

Food & Dining

To ensure your effectiveness in the ministries we're supporting, it's crucial that you eat at the scheduled mealtimes. If you encounter any difficulty in finding suitable food options, please don't hesitate to reach out to a sponsor, who will be happy to help you make a plan.

Phones

We will be using cell phones to communicate via text with Mission Tour participants, so text the exact message @dawsoncha to the phone number 81010 to receive updates. You'll also need your phone with headphones to access The Bus Liturgy, our daily audio devotional.

Social Media & Pictures

For daily updates and to have your pictures included in the week-in-review slideshow, the Music & Worship Facebook page, and other places, please be sure to:

- Use the #EndlessPraise2024 hashtag.
- Like & Follow Dawson Music & Worship on Facebook.
- Follow @dawsonmusicandworship on Instagram.
- Upload to our Dropbox using this QR code.

High Five Cards & Post Office

Once we arrive at our destination, each student and sponsor will write a note of encouragement and affirmation on provided High Five Cards to all others in their family group. These can be placed in designated boxes on the bus. These completed notes will be distributed, along with notes from home, throughout Mission Tour by the freshmen.

Medical & Medication

Our medical coordinator is Jennifer Compere. In case of sickness or injury, please tell a sponsor. Prescriptions must be in original packaging. Prescription medication will be administered as indicated at registration.

Money

Times listed in the Guidebook for which you will need to bring money or will be provided money for a meal are marked with “($).” You are responsible for extra snacks, souvenirs, and other optional items. A lot of spending money is not needed. You may want to alert your credit card company or bank that you will be traveling.

Drop-In Guests

Friends or parents planning on dropping by to visit while on Mission Tour, including the Senior Banquet, should take a moment to review the guidance found at www.dawsonchurch.org/missiontour. Generally, these guests should plan to visit briefly and simply observe, allowing their student to continue to participate with our group without interruption.

Packing & Luggage

Apparel Guidance

The apparel guidance, provided at registration, informing clothing choices for Mission Tour is available at dawsonchurch.org/missiontour. Please help us make our entire group successful by reviewing this carefully. Apparel guidance applies to all parts of Mission Tour, including travel days, work days, and in the hotel. If you're not sure, just ask ahead of time.

The Bus Liturgy

Being still can be hard. With all the things competing for our attention, finding time to begin our day with Christ can be challenging. That's why we're beginning each day with a special kind of audio devotional—The Bus Liturgy—voiced by the Chapel Choir Officers. They'll guide your time of quiet reflection and preparation. You'll grab your phone and your headphones, close your eyes, and listen.

Each day, you'll encounter a different kind of music to help focus your heart and mind. You'll hear words that remind you about what's in store for the day. Scripture will be the center of your devotional time, and you'll experience questions for reflection that will invite you to go deeper in your following of Christ. Your mind may wander; that's okay. When it does, just refocus your attention on the things you are hearing. You may even want to listen a second time, if you found yourself distracted. That's great.

15 Second Testimony

Personal testimony is powerful because it shows that God can change lives. It highlights the contrast between our old life and our new life in Christ. However, one common mistake is sharing too many details, and sometimes we don't even share at all due to fear or lack of time.

To simplify sharing your story, use four simple words or phrases. This scripted method keeps you on track and ensures brevity. It should only take 15 seconds. Here's how:

- Think of two words that describe your life before meeting Jesus.
- Think of two words that describe how Jesus changed your life.

Then share as follows:

“There was a time in my life when I was (insecure) and (angry). Then I met Jesus, put my trust in Him, and made Him number one in my life. Now I am (secure) and (full of joy). Do you have a story like this?”

The last question is crucial as it invites the other person to share their own experience. Practice this method in a group, passing it along to others for practice.

If you became a believer at a young age and don't remember your life before Jesus, think of two words that describe a time of crisis or uncertainty. Simply omit the phrase "I met Jesus" and say, "Then I put my trust in Jesus and made Him number one in my life."

Remember to:

- Practice the method.
- Start using it with unbelievers.
- Teach other believers how to share their 15-second testimonies.

Keep it concise and impactful!

The Story

Creation

In the beginning, God spoke and everything came into existence. By His command, the entire universe was created and filled with a dramatic display of galaxies, stars, and planets— including Earth, on which was a perfect garden of paradise called Eden. Of all the beauty He created, the masterpiece was a man and a woman. God made Adam and Eve in His image to reflect Him. They were created with the grand purpose of worshipping Him by loving Him, serving Him, and enjoying relationship with Him.

By God's design, all of creation was in harmony and was exactly the way it was supposed to be. During this time, there was no pain, suffering, sickness, or death. There was complete love, acceptance, and intimacy between God and man, between Adam and Eve, and throughout creation. But something tragic happened...

Fall

Adam and Eve were far from being equal to God, yet He lovingly placed them in charge of all He had created in Eden. He gave them the freedom to make decisions and govern the earth with one rule: not to eat fruit from a specific tree. One day, God's enemy, a fallen angel named Satan, wanted to overthrow God, so he took the form of a serpent and lied to Adam and Eve. He deceived them into thinking God was not good and did not have their best interest in mind. As a result, they knowingly disobeyed God.

In rebellion, Adam and Eve ate the fruit, deciding that they, not God, would determine right and wrong. The consequences of their actions were devastating! Like a virus, sin entered into all of creation and into the hearts of Adam and Eve. Sin, suffering, and pain were passed down from generation to generation; all of creation was distorted from its original design. We have all read or heard the stories of war, poverty, disease, greed, and scandals that plague our world today. Those are all a result of sin.

When we think about the perfection and love that existed at the beginning of creation, we realize we are far more flawed and far more sinful than we can dare imagine. Just think of the grudges we've held, the lies we've told, the thoughts we'd never dare say aloud. An honest glance into our own hearts reveals the truth: we are all guilty. Everyone has sinned, and the ultimate consequence, even worse than physical death, is eternal separation from a loving God, in terrible misery and unhappiness. Because of all this, we need to consider the questions: Can anything be done? Is there any hope?

Rescue

God removed Adam and Eve from Eden as a result of their sin but left them with a promise of rescue and hope. He promised them one of their descendants would someday rescue mankind from sin. Over the next centuries, God prepared the way for this person who would become the Savior of the world. Exact details of His birth, life, and death were recorded in the Bible many centuries before His coming. In fact, the whole Bible ultimately points to this one person as the focal point of all human history. His purpose in coming was “to seek and to save what was lost” (Luke 19:10). So who was He?

The promised Savior, simply, was God. God became human in the person of Jesus Christ almost 2,000 years ago, fulfilling all the predictions in the Old Testament. Jesus’ birth was miraculous since His mother was a virgin. His life was unique: He perfectly enjoyed and obeyed God without sin. This ultimately led to His agonizing death on a cross as He willingly, obediently, and sufficiently died to pay for the sins of mankind, according to God’s plan. In the greatest display of mercy and grace the world has ever known, Jesus’ life and death became a substitute for all who would trust in Him. The perfectly innocent died to rescue the hopelessly guilty from sin and Satan. But the grave couldn’t hold Jesus. Three days later, Jesus emerged from His tomb, fulfilling His earthly mission to defeat sin by dying on the cross and to defeat death by rising from the dead—just as God promised. Forty days later, He returned to Heaven where He reigns as the rightful King. But the story doesn’t end there...

Restoration

For all those who trust in Jesus alone, God has also promised He will make all things new. The new heaven and new earth will be completely free of sin and selfishness—a place of perfect friendship with God, others, and all creation. No more shattering earthquakes, devastating tsunamis, or violent storms will plague the earth. No more pain, broken hearts, sickness, or death to trouble us.

Everything will be restored to the way it was meant to be. The new earth will once again be the perfect home God intended for His creation. God’s original purpose will flourish, as those who trust in His rescue will enter into the grand purpose of worshipping Him by loving Him, serving Him, and enjoying relationship with Him forever.

The most wonderful part of this new world is that we will be with God forever, experiencing complete joy. We will be restored to a perfect relationship with the One who created, loved, and died for us. Scholar and children’s author C. S. Lewis compared the first step into this new world as “Chapter One of the Great Story which no one on earth has read: which goes on forever: in which every chapter is better than the one before.”

Your Response

God is inviting you to be part of the story He is writing throughout the ages to come. He is offering salvation to you today, which is your invitation to the rescue God offers. You can embrace the rescue of God by simply:

- Admitting your need for God
- Asking Him to forgive you
- Trusting in Jesus alone to rescue you
- Following Jesus Christ, the King of your life, in faith from this day forward.

Quotable Quotes

Mission is not primarily an activity of the church, but an attribute of God.
— David Bosch

Missions is not the ultimate goal of the church. Worship is. Missions exists because worship doesn't.

— John Piper

To know the will of God, we need an open Bible and an open map.

— William Carey

Questions for Reflection

Sometimes it helps to reflect on all that God has allowed you to encounter, and imagine through prayer what that might mean for you, your family, and your community. As you spend time with God and with others, use these questions to help you reflect.

Daily Reflection

- What do you feel that God needed you to see or hear today? Why?
- What moments from today “grabbed” you in a deep way—in the gut?
- What moments from today made you cringe in a deep way—in the gut?
- What is your prayer for the people you encountered today?
- What concerns do you have at the end of this day?

Ongoing Reflection

- Ongoing reflection is a part of our work together. What event from earlier in the week are you still processing? Why?
- How does knowing “the end of the story”—that one day every knee will bow and every tongue confess that Jesus is Lord—impact the way you ministered to people today?
- What did you see today/on this trip that makes you want to act—to do something to make a difference?
- Did you have a moment today when you were grateful for our group?
- What stories from today/this week will you remember long after it is gone?
- What stories from today/this week will you share in the days ahead?

Future Imagination

What hopes do you have for tomorrow?

- What hopes do you have after this mission tour?
- What might you change about your own thoughts, attitudes, and behaviors as a result of this day/this trip?
- How might you live differently as a result of this day/this trip?
- How is God changing you as a result of this trip?
